

Elias Berezin Biography

A recent finalist in auditions for the GRAMMY-award winning group Chanticleer, Elias Berezin is a California native. The 2021-22 season sees a company and role debut with Pacific Lyric Association as Falke in Die Fledermaus and a return to Guild Opera for a role debut as Ferrando in Cosí fan tutte. Recent concert performances include recorded recital appearances with the Verdi Chorus filmed during the pandemic, the tenor solos in Mozart's Coronation Mass and Haydn's The Creation with the Palisades Symphony, and frequent appearances in front of orchestras in festivals put on by World Mission University. Berezin is a member of C3LA, is currently pursuing his master's at the University of Redlands as a part of the Vocal Chamber Music program, and studies with Gabriel Reoyo-Pazos. An experienced educator and musician, Berezin maintains an active studio. (berezinmusic.com)

(137 words)