

Caroline Nelms is a versatile singer who frequently performs musical theater, opera and jazz throughout Southern California. She holds a Master of Music degree from UCLA. She recently sang the role of Juliet with Pacific Lyric at the CA Center for the Arts and played The Wardrobe in Beauty and the Beast with Theatre Royale at Pechanga. She is a frequent soloist with the San Diego City Ballet, Center Chorale, Southern California Philharmonic, Temecula Valley and Coachella Valley Symphonies. During the pandemic, Caroline spent a lot of her time playing a plastic guitar with her 2 year old son and singing and dancing to Latin rock, Sesame Street and Bounce Patrol.
